Campbells of Donegal Twp. (Cook Twp in 1855)
Westmoreland County, Pa.

The following are results of research aimed at determining the origin and families of early descendants of three of the families of Campbells that came into Ligonier Valley, Pa., in the late 1700's. The three families are those of: Cornelius Campbell, William Campbell Sr., and Robert Campbell Sr.

Cornelius, William, and Robert Campbell are listed on Straban Twp., York County, Pa., 1762 tax lists. Also on this list are familiar names that appeared later in Donegal Twp. of Westmoreland County such as William Eakeman, James Guffy, John Galbreath, William Hamilton, Robert Larimore, James Ross, and Samuel Shannon.¹

Cornelius Campbell may have been the first of the three Campbell families to arrive in future Donegal Twp. He was on 400 acres just north of Mansville by 1768.²

The 1771 Straban Twp. York County tax lists include William, John, and Hugh Campbell. Cornelius and Robert had already gone west.

Among those on the 1772 tax assessment list of Fairfield Twp., Bedford County, are Jean, Robert, and Cornelius Campbell; James Guffey; Patrick Archbold; Alexander Johnston; George Henry; and Michael Cawfman. This area on 26 Feb 1773 became Donegal and Fairfield Twp. of the new Westmoreland County.³

James Campbell warranted 300 acres adjoining lands of Robert Campbell, Cornelius Campbell, and others in Donegal Twp. in August 1786 paying interest from March 1773 indicating that he occupied the land not later than 1773.⁴

Westmoreland County Deed Book C page 200 made 8 April 1775. states that William Campbell of Straban Twp., York County, Pa., purchased from Michael Cauffman of Donegal Twp., Westmoreland County, Pa., an estimated 300 acres in Donegal Twp. bounded by lands of Philomy Waters on the southwest, James Guffy on the north, on the east adjoining a corner of Robert Campbell's land, and William Cunningham on the south.⁵

In July 1775 a tragedy occurred to the family of Robert Campbell Sr. While he was away from the area Indians murdered his wife, Jane, and two daughters. Their five remaining children were kidnapped and carried off to Canada. Four of the children eventually got back home years later.⁶

Westmoreland County Rangers on the Frontier 1778-83 in Capt. Samuel Shannon's or Major Samuel Wilson's Company were: Cornelius, Robert, James, and Thomas Campbell; James and John Guffey; John Ewing; Andrew and Wm. Galbreath, Robert and Daniel Micky, David Kilgore, Thomas Boyd, and James Robinson.⁷

The following pages will examine known facts about Cornelius, William Sr., and Robert Campbell Sr. families.

There is no documented proof that Margaret Campbell, above, is a daughter of Cornelius Campbell.

William Eakman was on the tax lists of York County, Pa. years 1762-1780, first in Straban Twp. and finally in Cumberland Twp. William Aikman, (along with Robert Campbell, Patrick Archbald, and James Guffy) is named as one of the bondsmen on the Bond and Letters of Administration issued by the Register of Wills, Westmoreland County. Pa. 4 Oct 1784. Administrators ordered to produce by 4 Oct 1785 an inventory of goods, chattels, and credits of the deceased Cornelius Campbell were Robert Campbell and Patrick Archbald.

Cornelius Campbell

On 25 Sept 1762 Cornelius Campbell applied for 50 acres in Menallen Twp. of York County. The property, surveyed 1766, is located about seven miles northwest of Gettysburg, near Arentsville, in "the Narrows". Conewago Creek passes thru the property and is the dividing line between Cumberland and Menallen Twps. Originally called Pleasant Valley, during James Buchanan's presidential campaign of 1856 it was renamed "Buchanan Valley". Valentine Fehl purchased the Cornelius Campbell and other tracts in 1795 from Morrison and Sample heirs patenting the area in 1809 as the "Armaugh" tract. Francis Cole had a hotel in the area until 1825.⁸

By 1768 Cornelius Campbell owned 400 acres of land in Donegal Twp. Westmoreland County, Pa. described in a 1797 deed as a "warrant by improvement obtained out of the land office of the Commonwealth of Pa. bearing date the year 1768 in Donegal Twp. adjoining lands of Patrick Archibald, William Eakman, James Campbell Sr., and Daniel McKinney". Note that these adjoining land owners existed in 1797 not 1768. No record of this warrant has been found as of this date.⁹

Cornelius Campbell died intestate in 1784 in Donegal Twp.. Robert Campbell and Patrick Archibald were appointed administrators on 4 Oct 1784 and ordered by the Court to produce an inventory of goods, chattels, and credits by 4 Oct 1785.¹⁰ Signing the bond for 200 pounds were Patrick Archbold, Robert Campbell, James Guffey, and William Aikman. The final account of the estate is probably recorded in Vol 2B p63,64 18 April 1792 but this volume is missing as verified by Recorder of Wills. A search of the metal case files in the Register of Wills office in Westmoreland County revealed the over two hundred year old bond & administrative orders, inventory and final account. The inventory of the personal estate was made on 5 Feb 1787 noting the following: Spelling is as found:

"Breastchanes and axeltree, gnibbing hoe, 2 pair of drawing cheans, one pair of taungs, one hand az, four pewter dishes, five pleats, three Bibels and a confession of feaith, one black hors, one quilt, two blankets, one beamear, three sheep, flowers and clevis, a nursery of apple trees-230 trees-, a chorn, an ax,... praised by Will Hamilton and Jas F. Campbell"

The estate was valued at 28 pounds. After paying the administrators, funeral expenses, ghter of Cornelius Campbell has been found although it appears very possible.¹¹

Cornelius Campbell d. 1784
his 400 acres in Ligonier Valley

The 400 acres of Cornelius Campbell noted in DB 2-511 appears to be represented on the Westmoreland County Map Maintenance Dept. preliminary tax map 44-9 (with overlays of Patents and Warrants) by the following parcels:

1. 75 ac warranted 12-12-1827 by Robert Campbell and patented 12-14-1838 by Thomas Campbell. Robert Campbell (DB 11-532) purchased this land from Cornelius Campbell on 14 Aug 1800 for 90#. This Cornelius Campbell appears to be the grandson of the original Cornelius Campbell who died 1784 and a son of James Finny Campbell. Robert Campbell and wife, Hannah, then sold this land to their son, Thomas B. Campbell, on 10 Nov 1838 (DB 24-110).
2. 72 ac 40p labeled the "Wm. Campbell estate". This land was surveyed 25 June 1829 for William E. Campbell who died 1831, and became part of his estate per Pn Book 6 p. 229 opened 1838 at which time the land was warranted and patented. Wm. E. Campbell had inherited the land from his father, James Finny Campbell, son of the original Cornelius Campbell as noted above.
3. 100 ac patented by John Campbell 1838. This land was warranted by George Campbell by warrant #487 on 13 Jan 1817. As noted in Partition Deed Book (Pn 6-98) John Campbell, son of George and Rebecca Campbell, inherited the property. This George Campbell is the second son of the James Campbell who warranted in 1786 the 300 acres adjoining this property on the east. The survey of James Campbell's 300 acres (A10-221) shows Cornelius Campbell on the west. No record found for how George and Rebecca Campbell got the land from Cornelius Campbell heirs.
4. 133 ac James Campbell, map 44-9, patent 3-11-1824, PB 21-389, DB 45-457. Survey C29-22 was made 4 Jan 1821 in pursuance of a warrant granted to Thomas & Wm. E. Campbell, heirs and administrators of James F. Campbell, deceased. This land in 1824 was conveyed to Wm. Hood by the above heirs of James F. Campbell. Hood conveyed on 17 Jun 1824 to Jacob Leighteberger. The Leighteberger heirs sold the property and finally there is DB 45-457 made 21 Jul 1860 when Samuel Roadman conveyed the property to Leonard Roadman.
5. Possibly 5 ac of the 18 ac town of Mansville came from land owned by Cornelius Campbell. James McClain warranted 18 ac 138p on map 44-9 on 3-7-1815 and patented it 13 Mar 1817. Survey 2-37b on 2 May 1816 shows 13 ac surveyed to James McClain but the 13 ac appears to be from both James McKenzie and James McClain lands.

Margaret Campbell and William Eakman their 300 ac in Ligonier Valley

As previously noted when Cornelius Campbell died 1784, Letters of Administration were granted to Robert Campbell and Patrick Archibald as part of the Bond Document (copy in my possession). Bondsmen named are Robert Campbell, Patrick Archibald, James Guffy, and William Aikman, all of Westmoreland County, Pa. All were bound to James Kinhead, Register for the probate of Wills and granting Letters of Administration in and for the county and Commonwealth aforesaid in the amount of 200#. William Eakman is not on the 1783 tax list for Donegal Twp but is on the 1786 tax list. Robert Campbell, Patrick Archibald, and James Guffy had been in Donegal Twp since the 1772 tax list of then Bedford County. From this it does appear that William or Margaret Eakman probably were related to Cornelius Campbell.

As noted above James Guffy was on the 1772 tax list. Deed Book 2 p. 200 describes the purchase by William Campbell, of Straban Twp., York County, Pa., of of an estimated 300 acres from Michael Cauffman of Donegal Twp., bounded by lands of Philomy Waters on the south-west, John Ross on the west, James Guffy on the north and on the east adjoining a corner of Robert Campbell's land. Deed was made 7 April 1775, sealed 8 April 1775 in the presence of Arthur St. Clair, but not recorded until 7 Feb 1788. This places James Guffy on the 300 acres later claimed by William Eakman. It also reveals that the Campbells came from York County, Pa., (as did the Guffeys and William Eakman).

William Eakman died 1790. Pn3-382 made 1797 names his family as does the chart on page 4.

The three parcels on map 44-9 that comprise the 300 ac held by William Eakman who died 1790 are:

1. The 104 ac 128p parcel warranted by John Eakman 10-1-1822. He sold the parcel to Jacob Filger in the year 1825 per Deed Book 16 p. 101. The property was described as adjoining Jacob Brough (Thomas Archibald's son-in-law) on the north, Jacob Leighteberger on the northeast, James McClain on the southeast, and Wm. Hood on the west.
2. The 105 ac parcel marked Mariah Campbell. Mariah Campbell purchased the parcel in 1874. As noted above, James McClain owned the land in 1825, probably purchasing it from heirs of William Eakman.
3. The 81 ac 51p James McKinsey parcel warranted by McKenzie 8-9-1822. James McKenzie married Agnes Campbell, daughter of James Campbell 1738-1819. This is the James Campbell referred to in Paul C. Campbell's Descendants of James Campbell, (pub. Dec 1960). McKenzie probably purchased this parcel from heirs of William Eakman. No deeds found.

Letters of Administration for James Finny Campbell issued in Westmoreland County 28 April 1818 to William and Thomas Campbell.
Heirs are named in Prothonotary Continuance Docket Book 12 p. 355 and Book 14 p. 541.

Cornelius Campbell, first son of James Finny Campbell, not listed since he was apparently deceased by the time heirs of James Finny Campbell were named in the above Prothonotary Docket Book and no descendants found.

James Finny Campbell c1745-1818

James Finny Campbell, son of Cornelius Campbell, farmed land inherited from his father. The land (in 1797) adjoined that of Patrick Archibald, William Eakman, James Campbell Sr., and Daniel McKinney. From the 1790 U.S. Census of Donegal Twp.: James Finny Campbell: two males age 16 and up, one male under 16, two females.

U.S. Direct Tax Census Donegal Twp. taken Oct 1798: James Finny Campbell is on 100 acres of land owned by Wm. Campbell, Elder. On property is a cabin 12x16 and a stable 18x20. Adjoining landowners are Patrick Archibald, George Campbell, and James Campbell. Thomas Campbell is on 100 acres owned by James Finny Campbell.

1800 U.S. Census Donegal Twp. p1035 Finney Campbell one male 26-45 and one female 16-26.

1810 U.S. Census Donegal Twp. p 820 James Finney Campbell one male 26-45 and one female 26-45.

On 28 April 1818 Letters of Administration were issued to Thomas and William Campbell on the estate of James F. Campbell.¹² From the metal files in the Register of Wills office the bond is for $400 signed by Thomas, Wm., George, and John Campbell. General Index Register's Office Orphan's Court Book 1 p 167 dated Aug 1818. Sale of property of James F. Campbell ordered. Land includes lot in Mannsville plus 100 acres adjoining James Campbell on the east, John Eakman & others on the south, Jacob Rugh (Brough) on the west, Wm. and George Campbell on the north. Sale to be first Monday of October 1818 and advertised in the "Greensburg Register". Sale postponed until October 13. On 23 Nov 1818 lot sold to Ralph Dawson. The 100 acres were sold to Wm. Hood.

Orphan's Court Book 1 p 164 date 1818 Account $294 to distribute.

From Metal Case Files: Personal property "Public Vendee" sale held 8 May 1818 by the administrator's of the estate of James F. Campbell. Purchaser's of items were John, George, Thomas, James F., Wm. E., James, Wm. B., and Wm. Campbell; John and Ephraim Eakman; Jesse Lewis, Jacob Brough, John Ellis, Hugh Larimore, Rosanna Gettemy, James Henry, James McKinsey, Alex'r Best, Peter Gay, John Matthews, and Andrew Wilson.

Deed Book 25 p472 made 6 May 1823 but not recorded until 15 Feb 1841: Thomas and Wm. E. Campbell, administrators of the estate of James F. Campbell, deceased, of Donegal Twp. sold lot #32 in town of Mansville to Ralph Dawson. Lot had been conveyed to James F. Campbell on 15 Nov 1817 by James McClain. James McClain had warranted 7 March 1816 the 13 acres 158 perches that was called the tract of "Mansville". Patent taken out 12 March 1817 by McClain.

Deed Book 65 p86 recorded year 1869 and deed book 129 p 162-164 recorded in year 1884 refer to the 106 acre land sale by the James F. Campbell administrator's to Wm. Hood for $23.75 per ac on 23 Nov 1818 per Orphans Court Book 1, p. 164.

From Prothonotary Office Westmoreland County: Continuance Docket Book 12 p.355 Feb term 1821 and Book 14 p.541: William Campbell, Thomas Campbell, John Campbell, and Hannah Campbell otherwise Hannah Wisely, heirs of James F. Campbell, deceased vs. Jacob Lichteberger & Wm. Hood. Suit is regarding a debt of $1832 on real estate. Also mentioned is Jean Campbell, widow and relict of said James F. Campbell. Jean died April 1821.

Children of James Finny Campbell and wife, Jean:¹³

1. Cornelius Campbell who had apparently died by the time heirs of James Finny Campbell were named in 1821. Also see below.
2. William E. Campbell born c 1770 married Mary Ewing. William died 1831. See following page for family.
3. Thomas Campbell. On 11 Jul 1831 John Campbell, Esq. granted Letters of Administration on the estate of Thomas Campbell, late of the State of Ohio. Inventory of the estate in Pa. included $60 cash in hands of Wm. Campbell and a judgement on the Prothonotary Docket from Leightebarger for $309.¹⁵
4. John Campbell.
5. Hannah Campbell married Mr. Wisely.

Pa. Archives shows a Cornelius Campbell in Westmoreland County Rangers under Capt. John Sloan at Plumb Creek and other stations in 1794.¹⁴ In 1800 Cornelius Campbell deeded 64 acres to Robert Campbell.¹⁶ This property adjoins land of James F. Campbell on the east, George Curry on the northwest, and Thomas Archibald on the west.

William E. Campbell, second child of James Finny Campbell and wife, Jean was born about 1770 in Donegal Twp. He married c1790 to Mary Ewing, daughter of John Ewing 1740-1818.¹⁷

Partition Book 6 item 229 p.159 contains the 1838 petition by Mary Campbell, relict of William E. Campbell, deceased, who died intestate 1831.¹⁸ William died seized in fee of 80 acres (called Parcel A in Partition) in Donegal Twp surveyed 25 June 1829, bounded by lands of Leighteberger heirs, George Campbell's heirs, Thomas Campbell, and others. Also another tract of 80 acres in same township surveyed 4 Sept 1837 as Parcel B for heirs of William Campbell, bounded by lands of Thomas Denniston, George Hutcheson, John McPeck and others (survey shows James Henry heirs, Jacob Best, Robert Campbell, Thomas Campbell, Sarah Hutcheson, and William McClean). Mary, in the petition to divide the properties among the widow and heirs, then names their eight children as follows:¹⁹

1. Cornelius Campbell born c 1790 was unmarried. Made his will 1856.
2. Mary Campbell born c 1792 married to George G. Campbell.
3. John Campbell born c 1794 had died by 1838 without issue.
4. William Campbell born c 1796 married Sarah.
5. Richard Campbell born c 1798 died intestate without issue.
6. Roseanna Campbell born c 1800 died intestate without issue.
7. George E. Campbell born c 1803 married Rose Gettemy.
8. Matthew Campbell married Caroline McCawley.

On 27 July the sheriff, William McKinney, and twelve men: John Campbell, Esq., William Leighteberger, Robert Campbell, John McKuan, Robert W. Matthews, Samuel McDowell, Jesse Campbell, Jeremiah Gilven, Thomas B. Campbell, William G. Campbell, John Berg, and Alexander Campbell viewed the lands and decided the two tracts could not be divided among the widow and all the heirs without spoiling the whole, but that the first tract could support two heirs and the second tract one heir. The final decision was that the first tract, Parcel A, appraised at $6 per acre, was accepted by George E. Campbell, and Parcel B was accepted by Cornelius Campbell, eldest son, at $3 per acre.

The estate of William E. Campbell paid $5 to William Galbreath for a coffin.

Children of William E. Campbell and wife, Mary Ewing

As stated previously three of the children (Richard, John, and Roseanna) of William E. and Mary Campbell had died without issue before 1838.

The will of son, Cornelius Campbell, made 7 Oct 1856 and proved 7 Nov 1856, names many nieces and nephews plus the fact that his brother, George E. Campbell, had died by 1856. Cornelius apparently never married.²⁰

George E. Campbell born c1803 married Rose Gettemy. Children were Cornelius Campbell born 1829, Martha Campbell born 1832, Sarah Campbell born 1833, John E. Campbell born 1834, Mary E. Campbell born 1836, and Wm. E. Campbell born 1840. Birth dates based on 1850 census data.²¹ Letters of Administration for estate of George E. Campbell issued to Seymour M. Campbell 13 Aug 1853.

Mary Campbell married George G. Campbell, son of William G. Campbell and Martha Glen. William G. Campbell is the first son of the James Campbell family outlined by Paul C. Campbell in 1960. See James Campbell family for children.²²

William Campbell, per his brother, Cornelius, in the 1856 will, was married to Sarah and their was a son, Cornelius. William was apparently absent from Western Pa.²³

Matthew Campbell married Caroline McColley. Children were: David, Harriet, and Matthew Bales. Matthew Bales Campbell was born 21 April 1854 and died 7 Jan 1937. He was a lawyer in Youngstown, Ohio. Apparently he never married.²⁴

William Campbell Sr. born c1715 d. c 1790-1800.
Lived Straban Twp., York County, Pa. in 1762 until c1772.
In 1775 purchased land in Donegal Twp. Westmoreland County, Pa.
William and Margaret appear in the 1790 census of Donegal Twp.

As previously noted, William Campbell is on the 1762 tax lists of Straban Twp., York County, Pa., Straban Twp. is located just north of Gettysburg in the area that in 1800 became Adams County. He is also listed on the 1771 Collectors Warrant of York County, Pa. He is not on the 1772 tax list for Fairfield Twp of Bedford County that later became Donegal Twp. Westmoreland County.

William Campbell of Straban Twp. York County, Pa. per Westmoreland County Register of Deeds, Book C p 200 made 8 April 1775, recorded 7 Feb 1788, purchased from Michael Cauffman of Donegal Twp., West. Co., for 120#, a tract of land estimated at 300 acres in Donegal Twp. bounded by lands of Philomy Waters on the southwest, James Guffy on the north, on the east adjoining a corner of Robert Campbell's land, and Wm. Cunningham on the south. Witnessed by Arthur St. Clair. Cook Twp Tax Map 44-13 shows this property as patented by John McGraw in 1785. He actually patented only 225 ac.

Deed Book C p251 1 March 1788 made in presence of John Galbraith and Wm. Campbell: Wm. Campbell Sr. for 5s grants all his lands on the south Branch of 4 Mile Run to Wm. Campbell Jr, son of Thomas Campbell. The deed included all personal estate, 2h, 2c, 2 head of hogs, and farming utensils and household furniture. The property included must be the 75 acres just west of the McGaw patent.

1790 U.S. Census Donegal Twp.: Wm. Campbell Sr. one male age 16 & up and one female. There is one other Wm. Campbell listed with 2 males age 16 & up, one male under 16, and one female. This is probably Wm., the son of James, who married Martha Glen. Their first child, George G. Campbell, was born 3 June 1789. .

Probable children of William and Margaret Campbell are:

1. Margaret Campbell born about 1740 died 1791 married James Guffy 1736-1806. (See following page)
2. James Campbell born about 1740 married Mary. This is the family researched by Glen Harold Campbell and Paul C. Campbell 1960.²⁵
3. Wm. Brooks Campbell married Ann Murdock. Per Deed Book 2 p256: On 19 Feb 1795 Wm. Brooks Campbell and wife, Ann, for 60# deeded 100 acres to John Austrow. This property is part of the warrant to Thomas Murdock in 1786 that was patented 9 May 1787 and made over to Ann Campbell in Thomas Murdock's will.
4. Thomas Campbell born about 1750
5. Joseph Campbell born 1750's married Mary.

Margaret Campbell was born about 1740, probably in York County, Pa. She married James Guffy 1736 -1806, born in Ireland, son of William Guffy, probably about 1766 since their first child, John Guffy, was born 1768.²⁶ Both families, the Campbells and the Guffeys were then in York County, Pa.

By 1772 James Guffy was on the 1772 tax list of the area to become Donegal Twp, Westmoreland County the following year.

James Guffy is listed as a member of Capt. Samuel Shannon's Company of Rangers on the Frontier 1778-1783.

Deed Book A-418 Philemon Waters of Mt. Pleasant Twp. to James Guffy of Dinigall Twp. Deed was made 9 Oct 1783 and recorded 12 Nov 1784. "Land on waters of 4 Mile Run adjoining the dividing ridge on the south betwixt the head waters of the Loyalhanna and 4 Mile Run held by improvement by Philemon Eskins by the leave of Capt. St. Clair, commandant of Fort Ligonier and conveyed from Philemon Eskins to Philemon Waters by Bill of Sale-the tract of land as it now stands surveyed, bounded, and limited together with all houses and improvements. Witnessed by Hugh Martin and Nathan (Heald?). On 3 Feb 1785 James Guffy warranted this 300 acres in Donegal Twp. adjoining lands of William Campbell on the north, Nicholas Wilson on the east, George Henry on the south. The land to the west is marked vacant. The property was surveyed on 4 Oct 1785 as 293 acres which was later patented 20 Sept 1788. This land was sold 4 Mar 1806 to John Robeson. James Guffy also warranted land in North Huntington Twp in 1787 and by 1790 was living there.

Margaret Guffy died 1791. Their marriage had produced three children:

1. John Guffy 1764-1845 who was first married to Agnes Lowry. There were 11 children by this marriage. There was a second marriage to Rebecca Stewart that produced two children, Benjamin and Stewart. John Guffy was one of the executors of the estate of William Eakman who died 1790.
2. Mary (Polly) Guffy
3. Isabella (Bell)

James Guffy married second to Mrs. Findley. Children were:

4. William Findley Guffy born 1798 who married Sarah C. Eakman, daughter of John Eakman 1768-1837.²⁷
5. Sarah

Thomas Campbell

Thomas Campbell born c1750 and married by 1782 (based on census data), is listed, among others, in Westmoreland County, Pa., "Rangers on the Frontier", per Pa. Archives Ser 3 vol 23 p 286,287 along with Cornelius, and Robert Campbell. He is also listed, among others, as a member of Capt. Samuel Shannon's Co. of Westmoreland County Rangers on the Frontier 1778-83 per Pa. Archives Ser 3 vol 23 p 319 along with Cornelius, James, and Robert Campbell.

Thomas is listed along with James, James Jr., Joseph, Robert Sr., and Robert Jr. Campbell on 1786 State Tax for Donegal Twp. Westmoreland Co., Pa.

1 March 1788 Westmoreland County Deed Book C p 251 Donegal Twp.: Wm. Campbell Sr. deeded his land, farming utensils, and inventory to Wm. Campbell Jr. who is the son of Thomas Campbell. Witnessed by John Galbreath. This could lead one to believe that this Thomas Campbell is a son of Wm. Campbell Sr.

5 August 1788 (DB D-50): Thomas Campbell is a witness on a deed wherein John Galbreath deeds his land and inventory to sons, Andrew and John.

By the time of the 1790 census of Donegal Twp. the Thomas Campbell household includes one male age 16 or over, two males under 16, and three females. The family appears in the 1790 thru 1820 census.

Thomas Campbell is listed on the 1798 U.S. Direct Tax on the 100 ac just north of Mansville owned by James Finney Campbell. Neighbors are Patrick Archbald, John Aikman, and Wm. Campbell.

Letters of Administration for the estate of Thomas Campbell, deceased, were granted on 2 April 1829 to John Campbell, he having given bond for $300. Sureties were John Best and Alexander Hunter. The estate papers found in the in Register of Wills Office of Westmoreland County include a list of goods and chattels sold at an auction held at the house of James B. Campbell on 10 April 1829. Appraisal was made by Elias Best and Alexander Hunter. There is also an assignation by the widow, Mary, which says that her oldest living son, John, shall settle her estate administration. On the 2 April 1829 bond is John B. Campbell, John Best, and Alexander Hunter.²⁸

Children of Thomas and Mary Campbell:

William Campbell born between 1784-1788 (census analysis of Thomas Campbell family). No family of William could be identified.

John Campbell born c1789 based on 1850 census of Donegal Twp. where he is listed with Elizabeth age 38, Margaret age 21, and Jemima age 18.

Per census analysis there also appears to have been two daughters born pre 1790, one son born 1790-1800, and two daughters born 1790-1800.

Joseph Campbell

1790 U.S. Census Donegal Twp. Westmoreland County: Joseph Campbell one male 16 and up, two males under 16, and one fem.

On 20 Jan 1793 (DB 1-392) Joseph and Mary Campbell sold 183 acres to Wm. Knab. The land adjoined lands of Wm. Hamilton Jr., James Campbell, Robert Campbell, and Alexander Johnston. This deal may have not remained consummated because of the following: Per Deed Book 13-459, made 3 Apr 1815, Jacob Criley to Mathias Marker: this land was warranted by Robert Magee (could be McGaw) on 13 Sep 1784 who deeded it to Joseph Campbell 15 Sep 1785. Joseph and Mary Campbell (DB 4-337) on 1 Apr 1799 then deeded this same land, called "Center Farm", to Herman Criley who willed the land to Jacob Criley. Martin Criley is on this land for the 1798 U.S. Direct Tax list. Joseph Campbell is not on this list. .

On 8 Dec 1786 Joseph Campbell warranted 80 acres "on the waters of Loyalhanna Creek adjoining land of Robert Williams' northeast corner, from thence north to the top of the ridge including a spring running south between Robert Williams' and Robert Campbell's land". On 20 Jan 1793, (DB 1-395) Joseph Campbell sold this land, described as adjoining lands of Richard Williams, James McDowell, Robert Paine, Robert Campbell Sr. and Robert Campbell Jr., to Wm. Knab. The deed reads: "The Commonwealth of Pa. by warrant date of 1786 granted this 100 ac to Joseph Campbell with joiners...(as above mentioned)". This land (76 acres) was patented 23 Dec 1795 by John Harr. A patent was also issued to Wm. Knob for this same acreage on 15 Mar 1815. Wm. Knob was on the land for the 1798 U.S. Tax Census.

5 Jan 1797: Joseph Campbell and Thomas Johnston are witnesses to Thomas Campbell's release of interest in Cornelius Campbell's 1768 warrant for 400 acres that Thomas gave to James F. Campbell and other heirs of Cornelius Campbell. (Deed Book 2 p. 511)

12 May 1797 Joseph Campbell one of the 12 men viewing the lands of Wm. Eakman in accordance with the John Eakman petition. Partition Book 3 p 382.

Joseph Campbell does not appear in the 1800 census, or later, in West. Co.

James Campbell c1740-1819, son of William Campbell & Margaret

This is the family exhaustively researched by Glenn Harold Campbell in the 1940's and Paul C. Campbell who did his work 1960. That study is available, among other libraries, at the Ligonier, Pa. Public Library and the Westmoreland County Historical Society in Greensburg, Pa.²⁸ The research is thorough and needs only a few comments here. These are not criticisms but offers of clarification based on my research.

Paul Campbell lists the second son of James Campbell as George Campbell born c1766 and died 1830's. Wife's name unknown. Children listed are:

Mary G., John, Cornelius, George E, Matthew, and William.

The George Campbell is correct but the children listed are those of William E. Campbell and wife, Mary Ewing, as found in Partition Book 6 page 159 found in Register of Wills Office he family. Children are: John born c1790 who married Mary Galbreath (written up as #2-2 in Paul Campbell's book), Hannah who was then married to Patrick Wisely, and Mary who was in her minority in 1835. Gresham's, Cyclopedia of Westmoreland County, Pa., on p. 60 discusses this family at length.

Paul Campbell lists James Finny Campbell as the third son of James. This writer believes, per documentation previously presented on Cornelius and James Finny Campbell, that James Finny Campbell is the son of Cornelius Campbell. Per 1798 U.S. Direct Tax Census of Donegal Twp. There is a James Weaver Campbell on 250 acres owned by James McKenzie adjoining James Nelson and George Campbell that could be the third son. Also James and Robert Campbell, sons of the original James Campbell patented the original warrant in 1836.

Another item: Isrupe, Marriages and deaths from Newspapers, Fort Wayne Public Library 974.801 w52fma, "Mrs. Mary Campbell, consort of James Campbell, deceased died 6 March 1829 at her residence in Donegal Twp., age 91 years. She had nine children.

Land of James Campbell c1740-1819

James Campbell received warrant #198 on 20 March 1786 as per the Pa. Land Office Warrant Register for Westmoreland County. The 300 acres adjoined lands of Robert Campbell, Cornelius Campbell, and others. Interest was charged from 1 March 1773. This land was patented 1 June 1836 for 333 ac 46 perches by James and Robert Campbell per Patent Book H76 p. 597. Survey A10-221, made August 29, 1786, shows Cornelius Campbell on the west, William Hamilton on the northeast, William Campbell on the southeast, and vacant land on the southwest (the area of James McKinsey's 1822 warrant).

The Will of James Campbell, (Will Book 1 p. 456) states that his lands are to be occupied by sons, Robert, Thomas, and Matthew. Of the three only Robert occupied any of James' land. This (Captain) Robert Campbell later occupied the northern one third (117 1/2 ac) of the property. His one third was divided in Feb 1857 by Partition Deed Book 8 p. 283 some 2 years after his death. Robert's sons, White and James, took the land.

The middle one third of James original 333 acres was sold to Henry Sible and Martin Minser by 1838.

The lower one third of the original 333 acres was owned by William Campbell, son of James. When William died in 1850 he owned three parcels described in Partition Deed Book 7 p. 503: the first was an 111 ac parcel that was the lower one third of his father's 333 acres. This went to sons, James and Jesse. The second parcel of 173 acres was originally owned by his grandfather, William Campbell Sr. This parcel went to son, William. A third parcel of 60 acres went to son, Alexander.

Robert Campbell Sr.'s, wife, Jane, and daughters, Sarah and an infant, were killed by Indians 1775. A son, Thomas was kidnapped at the same time. It is said he was taken to Canada by the Indians and there sold, ending up in England never to return home.

As previously noted, Robert Campbell and family had arrived by 1772 in the area of Western Pa. that in 1773 became Donegal Twp. of Westmoreland County. It appears, from a 1775 deed to his brother, William, from Michael Cauffman, that the family came from Straban Twp., York County, Pa. This same deed notes that Robert Campbell's land adjoined that of William Campbell's on the east.

The story of the tragic murder of Robert Campbell's wife, Jane, and two daughters and the kidnapping of the rest of the children by Indians in July 1775 is related below in an excerpt from A History of Old Donegal Church, written by the wife of Rev. D. Allen Martens, Martha G Martens.

The 1790 census shows Robert Campbell Sr. family with 2 males 16 years & up, and one female.

The 1798 U.S. Direct Tax shows Robert Campbell Sr. owning 150 acres adjoining Wm. Knob and Robert Paine. This property was warranted by Robert Campbell (1758-1857) on 12 Dec 1827 as Warrant #513 and patented 18 Feb 1833 (PB H31 p.355) as 140 acres 157 perches.

The 1800 Census shows Robert Campbell, Sr., one male over age 45.

Children:

1. Robert born 1758 died 23 May 1857. He married Hannah Galbreath, daughter of John and Mary Ann Galbreath. Hannah was born 1758 and died 1856.²⁹
2. Polly born 1760 never married. She died 1840.
3. Thomas born about 1762 never returned from the Indian capture in 1775.
4. William born 1764 per 1850 census. In this 1850 census he was living with his brother, Robert.²⁹ William married Mary Galbreath daughter of John and Mary Ann Galbreath.
5. Sarah born about 1765 was killed by Indians July 1775.
6. Isabella born about 1772 married John Galbreath, son of John and Mary Ann Galbreath.³¹ In the 1850 census of Donegal Twp. Isabella is age 78 living with Isabel Lloyd, her granddaughter, and Mary Lloyd, both age 37. Mary Galbraith, daughter of John and Isabella, married John Campbell, Esq. 1794-1839, son of George Campbell and Rebecca Ross Ewing.³⁰ See Register of Wills, Partition Book 6 p98 for family of John Campbell Esq.
7. Infant daughter killed 1775 by Indians.

ROBERT CAMPBELL JR., first son of Robert Campbell Sr.

Robert Campbell Jr. was born 1758, probably in York County, Pa. After surviving the Indian kidnapping he lived the rest of his life in Donegal (now Cook) Township, a few miles south of Ligonier, Pa. In addition to warranting the 140 acres previously mentioned he patented the 236 acre parcel to the west of the 140 acre parcel. This land was warranted by George Glen and Alexander Johnston in 1786 but patented by Robert Campbell 18 Feb 1838. Deed Book 46-132 identifies the land as inherited by his children. Robert was a ruling elder of the Old Donegal Church in Pleasant Grove for 65 years. He married Hannah Galbraith, daughter of John and Mary Ann Galbraith. Hannah was born 1758 and died 1856. Robert died 23 May 1857 and is buried in Pleasant Grove Church Cemetery.³¹ Letters of Administration were issued to John Guffy and Peter Phillippi on 16 June 1857. On the bond was Robert Guffy.³²

Children:

1. Robert B. Campbell born about 1790 married Ruth (Ewing?). Robert died 4 Mar 1833. Robert Ewing was adm. of estate.³³
2. Thomas B. Campbell born about 1793 died 22 Mar 1858.³⁴ He married Agnes Campbell 1800-1872, daughter of John Campbell 1771-1850, (John Campbell is the son of the original James Campbell). From Deed Book 24 p110 Robert and Hannah Campbell on 10 Nov 1838 deeded 75 acres to Thomas B. Campbell. The land joined Jacob Lightenberger, Jacob Brough, John Campbell, and Wm. E. Campbell. Children per 1850 census are: Eliza F. born 1827, Anna F. born 1833, Asher F. born 1837, Agnes F. born 1844, Silas born 1847, and Phebe born 1846. Thomas is said to be buried in the Pleasant Grove Cemetery near his father, Elder Robert Campbell Jr. and wife, Hannah, per Richard M. Cochran, Ewing Genealogy, (Ligonier, Pa. Public Library)
3. Rachel Campbell married Peter Phillippi.
4. Sarah Campbell married Robert Guffy.
5. Isabella Campbell married John Guffy.

Census readings for 1790 thru 1810 indicate that there were two females in the household born pre 1790, two females born 1790-1800, and two females born 1800-1810. Only information on the above three daughters has been found.³⁵

Massacre of the Robert Campbell Family

The often told story of the capture and massacre of members of the Robert Campbell family by Indians in July 1775 can be found in Martha G. Marten's, A History of the Old Donegal Church, Ligonier, Pa..

"Robert Campbell was absent from his home that day in July 1775. His sons, Robert William, and Thomas, were working in the fields when they were set upon by Indians. The half grown boys ran towards the house but were followed by the savages. The mother, with a baby in her arms, was near the house. With unspeakable cruelty, the red men killed her with a tomahawk. She, in falling, crushed out the life of her baby. Thereupon, the Indians forced the three girls, Polly, Isabel, and little Sarah to mount their horses, and rode away, driving the boys before them. About a mile from the house, Sarah, because she could not stay on the horse, was killed. The other five were taken north and eventually separated. Thomas was sold to an English officer who took him to England. William returned to the valley at the close of the Revolution. The two girls made their way back after four years, Isabel married and lived in Mansville, rearing a family of sons and daughters, one of whom married another Campbell. Polly never married. She lived a long Christian life, and died in 1840, at the age of eighty. Robert (Jr.) was with the Indians six years. In 1782, he came back to his old home...."

Will of John Galbreath d.1809

John Galbreath of Donegal Twp., Westmoreland County, Pa. made his will 8 Feb 1800. It was recorded 27 June 1809 in Will Book 1 p. 238 Recorder of Wills, Westmoreland County, Pa. . He had died by 13 April 1809. Witnesses were William Scott and Samuel Hunter.
